PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

AI Operations Specialist June 2026 – Present
Opendoor (Real Estate Tech)
Toronto, ON, Canada

- Built and iterated on a utility-activation dashboard with Cursor/Codex, prioritizing ~1,590 homes by freeze risk; helped the team cut open cases 39% (5,808 to 3,527) in 10 days.
- Shipped a daily "catch net" with Gumloop and Slack MCP to triage 300+ utility-support requests/day, surfacing emergencies, untouched requests, and open cases so the team could prioritize urgent action.
- Led a utility-provider directory from discovery to launch: personally completed service activations to uncover pain points, researched provider processes, and defined database and front-end requirements with engineering so operators could find setup instructions and contact methods in one place.
- Created and shared reusable Cursor/Codex skills for application forms and check formatting, cutting form-filling time ~93%, from ~15 minutes manually to ~1 minute with an agent.

Customer Experience (CX) Analyst January 2025 – August 2025
Hydro One (Ontario's Largest Electricity Provider)
Toronto, ON, Canada

- Conducted customer research by categorizing support communications in Excel pivot tables; visualized recurring pain points to inform myEnergy Rewards website and FAQ updates for 30,000+ enrolled customers.
- Refined surveys with Research & Insights; analyzed customer satisfaction, enrollment motivations, and notification feedback to bring customer perspectives into communications and program decisions.
- Used customer segmentation research to guide targeted recruitment; charted enrollment and campaign performance with Marketing, comparing participation, opt-outs, and energy savings to inform program decisions.

Software Engineer Intern May 2024 – December 2024
IO Industries (Electronics Manufacturer)
London, ON, Canada

- Enabled self-service lens selection by shipping a React/Node.js lens compatibility calculator used by hundreds of customers monthly; addressed a recurring compatibility problem cited in 30%+ of support inquiries.
- Made the calculator usable on mobile and desktop through responsive interfaces and REST APIs; added input validation, asynchronous state handling, and unit tests to support reliable results.

Reporter Intern May 2023 – July 2023
The Peninsula Qatar (English-language Daily Newspaper)
Doha, Qatar

- Interviewed people firsthand to understand their experiences and perspectives; combined empathetic listening with research to publish culture and society features that made complex topics accessible.
